Angela M. Mingo Appointed to Ohio Capital Corporation for Housing Board of Directors

Columbus, OH – Angela M. Mingo, director of community relations for Nationwide Children’s Hospital, has been appointed to serve as a Board Member for the Ohio Capital Corporation for Housing (OCCH). OCCH is a nonprofit corporation and the State of Ohio’s largest Low-Income Housing Tax Credit equity provider dedicated to promoting the availability of affordable housing throughout Ohio.

Ms. Mingo directs the community engagement efforts of the hospital and works closely with neighborhood and civic organizations. She has been instrumental in the implementation of the Healthy Neighborhoods, Healthy Families initiative, a five prong approach to neighborhood revitalization efforts on the city’s Southside, led by Nationwide Children’s Hospital.

“Angela’s experience in government and now working at an important anchor institution supporting local affordable housing initiatives will provide valuable insight to OCCH,” said Hal Keller, OCCH President. “We are pleased to welcome Angela to our organization and look forward to her service for years to come.”

Ms. Mingo currently serves on the United Way of Central Ohio Home Impact Council. She is a mayoral appointed commissioner with the City of Columbus Community Relations Commission and serves on the commission’s executive board. She is a member of the Columbus office of Minority Health Advisory Committee, a graduate of the Leadership Columbus 2012 Class, and participant in the Big Brother, Big Sisters mentoring program. Ms. Mingo was also recently appointed by Governor Kasich to the Ohio Lottery Commission.

She earned bachelor’s degrees in Portuguese and international relations as well as her masters of city and regional planning degree from The Ohio State University. Ms. Mingo’s honors include Columbus Business First Health Care Heroes Award and recognition in Who’s Who in Black Columbus. Ms. Mingo is married to Franklin County Auditor Clarence E. Mingo.

Ohio Capital Corporation for Housing is a non-profit financial intermediary that provides developers of affordable housing with access to capital markets. Created in 1989 with the assistance of the Ohio Housing Finance Agency, OCCH has raised over $3 Billion in equity investment, financed more than 35,000 units of affordable housing, and assisted in the creation of more than 700 affordable projects.
